

The OIAA and CIAA are hosting a ZOOM virtual seminar on May 13, 2020. Register at no cost.

1:30 pm Michael Blinick of MartaWatson LLP will be presenting:

Legal Challenges associated with the Automobile Sharing Economy

The topics covered will include:

- Coverage Priority Issues – When will a driver’s personal auto policy cover the driver and passengers or when will the company’s policy be primary in coverage
- Coverage Limits – Review of liability limits and potential exposure on OPCF 44r coverages
- Issues for Adjusters – Issues for adjuster to consider when investigating the claim

2:15 pm Dan Strigberger of Strigberger Brown
Armstrong LLP will be presenting:

Airbnb and Liability

(Hosts who rent out their properties through the likes of Airbnb and Homeaway)

- What is covered under the host’s home policy and what isn’t covered
- What is covered under the program’s policy and what isn’t covered

Bullying – Exposure under homeowners

- Coverage Issues – Review of the various parties/policies that may be asked to respond and potential for insurers to deny coverage under the home owner’s policy
- Defending these Claims – Various defences available and evidence required to advance potential available defences
- Should insurers be selling third party bullying liability policies?

3:15 pm COVID Roundtable Q&A

Call or log in for all or some of the presentations.
Registration at www.oiaa.com.